10. Applications for membership of the Expert Register
 - must be made using the appropriate application form
 - must be supported by such evidence as is stipulated in the application form and/or requested at any time prior to a decision
 - the names of applicants will be notified to all members of the Expert Register who may within 14 days of such notification support or object to the application by informing the CfA Membership Manager. Any member of the Expert Register raising an objection must do so on the grounds that the applicant does not fulfil one or more of the criteria set out under paragraph 9 above and upon request produce evidence to substantiate the objection insofar as they are reasonably able to do so
 - Members of the Expert Register must disclose any conflict of interest they may have when commenting on an application
 - At least four members of the Expert Register must respond within 14 days for an application to be considered
11. Decisions
 - The Application committee will review the responses from the members of the Expert Register as soon as is reasonably practicable after the expiry of 14 days from the date of notification of the application.
 - Subject to any other instruction from the Board of Directors, the business of the Application committee will be conducted in accordance with these regulations. The Co-Chairs of the Expert panel may in their discretion ask for further information from an applicant.

- Applications for membership of the Expert Register may be accepted, deferred, or refused.
- Applicants will be notified of the decision as soon as practicable.
- If an application is accepted, the applicant's name will be entered on the Expert Register, from the date of entry on the Register the applicant is entitled to represent themselves as a member of the Expert Register.

12. Appeals

- If an application is refused, the applicant will be notified in writing of the reasons for refusal. The applicant has the right to lodge an appeal within 30 days of being notified of the decision. Appeals will be heard in accordance with the process set out in the Cifa Membership Regulations.

13. Removal from the Expert Register

- Members of the Expert Register shall act in accordance with Cifa's Code of conduct.
- Allegations of professional misconduct (including the provision of inaccurate information in the course of an application to join the Expert Register) will be dealt with through Cifa's professional conduct regulations.
- If a member of the Expert Register is expelled from Cifa or their membership of Cifa is suspended, they no longer meet the requirements of membership of the Expert Register under paragraph 9. Their name shall be removed from the Register, and they will no longer be entitled to represent themselves as a member of the Expert Register.
- A member of the Expert Register may resign from the Expert Register by notifying the Cifa Membership Manager.

14. Removal from the Application committee

- A member of the Application committee will cease to be a member of the Application committee once their term of office has ended.
- Members of the Application committee shall act in accordance with Cifa's Code of conduct.
- Allegations of professional misconduct will be dealt with through Cifa's professional conduct regulations.
- If a member of the Application committee is expelled from Cifa or their membership of Cifa is suspended, they will be removed from the Application committee with immediate effect.
- A member of the Application committee may resign from the Application committee by notifying the Cifa Membership Manager.
- The Board of Directors may remove one or both Co-Chairs of the Expert panel if they fail to respond to requests which impacts the Application committee's ability to approve applications to join the Expert Register, or do not act in accordance with these regulations.
